Dear Dr Mat Azmi

Congratulations!

The examiners have confirmed that the required minor corrections to your thesis have been carried out to their satisfaction. On behalf of the University of Birmingham, I am therefore pleased to advise that you have qualified for the degree of Doctor of Philosophy.

COPIES OF YOUR THESIS: In accordance with University Regulations you are required to submit one hardbound copy and an electronic copy of your final approved thesis by 25 November 2019, otherwise your degree cannot be formally conferred at a degree congregation. Please see attached sheet for information on how to submit your hardbound and e-thesis.

DEGREE CONGREGATIONS: The next Degree Congregations will be held in December 2019. Subject to submission of hardbound copy and e-thesis, your degree will be conferred in accordance with the preference listed on your Degree Congregation Choice form.

The Funding, Graduation & Awards team provide information on degree congregations on their web site at: <https://intranet.birmingham.ac.uk/as/studentservices/graduation/index.aspx>. If you have any queries regarding your graduation, please submit an enquiry to the Funding, Graduation and Awards Team via Student Help: <https://intranet.birmingham.ac.uk/student/student-hub/homepage.aspx>

REGISTRATION: As you have now successfully completed your degree, your registration has come to an end. Please see the attached important information regarding access to your student e-mail account.

If you have any queries please submit an online enquiry via Student Help: www.studenthelp.bham.ac.uk.

May we again congratulate you on your success.

Yours sincerely
