Congratulations!

The examiners have confirmed that the required major corrections to your thesis have been carried out to their satisfaction. On behalf of the University of Birmingham, I am therefore pleased to advise that you have qualified for the degree of Doctor of Philosophy.

COPIES OF YOUR THESIS

From 1st January 2024, there will no longer be a requirement in University Regulations to deposit a hardbound copy of your final thesis in order for your degree to be formally conferred at a degree congregation.

Please see attached sheet for information on how to deposit your hardbound and e-thesis.

For more information on this change in University Regulations, please see the Changes to thesis deposit webpage.

DEGREE CONGREGATIONS

The next Degree Conferment will take place in July 2024. Subject to completion of the final thesis requirements outlined above, your degree will be conferred in accordance with the preference listed on your Degree Congregation Choice form.

If you have any queries regarding your graduation, please contact the Funding, Graduation and Awards Team.

REGISTRATION

As you have now successfully completed your degree, your registration has come to an end. Please see the attached important information regarding access to your student e-mail account.

GRADUATE CAREERS SUPPORT

If you would like help with taking next steps after your research degree, you have access to graduate support from the University's Careers Network for up to two years after graduation.

If you have any queries, please contact Research Student Administration.

May we again congratulate you on your success.

Yours sincerely
